A+ Guide to Hardware, 9E

Author: Manan Ahmed Asif

Review: Manan Ahmed Asif reexamines Islam's arrival in India via the Chachnama, highlighting Chach, a Brahmin ruler, and Muhammad bin Qasim's conquest. He contends it's a political theory, challenging conventional Muslim-Hindu divides in contemporary South Asia.

A Brief History of the Crusades

Author: Geoffrey Hindley

Review: Geoffrey Hindley explores the impact of the Crusades on European history and religious relations, presenting an engaging account from the Middle East to the Baltic. He highlights key figures, such as Godfrey of Bouillon and the inspiring peasant boy Etienne, while addressing overlooked questions about religious division.

A Peace to End All Peace

Author: David Fromkin

Review: The Middle East's longstanding conflicts arise from rival religions, ideologies, and national ambitions rooted in post-World War I political arrangements by the Allies. In "A Peace to End All Peace," David Fromkin analyzes the formative years from 1914 to 1922, detailing how these decisions set the stage for ongoing regional turmoil.

Alberuni's India

Author: Dr. Edward C. Sachau

Review: In 1017 CE, at Sultan Mahmud of Persia's request, Alberuni traveled to India to explore Hindu religion, science, and literature. He spent thirteen years studying the country, producing a comprehensive scholarly work that profoundly captured Indian life, remaining unparalleled for eight centuries.

A System of Life

Author: Jan-Peter Hartung

Review: Research on militant Islamism often neglects early influences. "A System of Life" examines Sayyid Abu'l-A'la Mawdudi's Islamist ideology from the 1930s-1940s, highlighting his integration of Western thought and Islamic principles. The work underscores Mawdudi's significant role in shaping modern Islamic thought, particularly affecting the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood and South Asian intellectuals.

The storm before the storm

Author: Mike Duncan

Review: The history of the Roman Republic details its evolution from a small city-state to a significant power, highlighting the conflicts and political strategies that led to its decline. It underscores Rome's unique cooperative governance in facing threats, creating a notable legacy in civilization.

Empress: The Astonishing reign of Nur Jahan

Author: Ruby Lal

Review: Nur Jahan, the cherished wife of Emperor Jahangir, co-ruled the Mughal Empire from 1611. A skilled hunter and architect, she influenced the Taj Mahal's design. Ruby Lal's biography, "Empress," highlights her political acumen and contributions, challenging stereotypes about women's roles in the empire.

An intimate portrait of a Great Mughal Jahangir

Author: Parvati Sharma

Review: Jahangir, the fourth Mughal emperor, is primarily recognized through his relationships as Akbar's son and Shahjahan's father. Parvati Sharma portrays him as an astute ruler, insightful observer of society and nature, and a sophisticated aesthete with diverse interests in this engaging historical account.

Sapiens: A brief History of Humankind

Author: Yuval Noah Harari

Review: How did our species succeed in the battle for dominance? Why did our foraging ancestors come together to create cities and kingdoms? How did we come to believe in god's nations and human rights? To trust money, books, and laws and to be enslaved by bureaucracy, timetables, and consumerism? And what will our world be like in the millennia to come.

Cutting Free

Author: Salma Ahmed

Review: Salma Ahmed's journey encompasses a privileged childhood in pre-partition India and a tumultuous youth in Pakistan. Through three marriages, difficult maternal choices, and successful ventures in business and politics, she candidly explores society's taboos, recounting her dynamic experiences and political events, including interactions with prominent leaders.

Dastan-e-Ghadar

Author: Zahir Dehlvi

Review: Rana Safvi translates Zahir Dehlvi's first-person account of life in Delhi during the 1857 revolt, detailing events leading to the uprising against British rule triggered by offensive Enfield rifles. Dehlvi, a privileged Mughal official, narrates the storming of Delhi by Meerut soldiers, his losses post-mutiny, and insights into

Ishwardas Nagar's Futuhat-i-Alamgiri

Author: Tasneem Ahmed

Review: Futuhat-i-Alamgiri, authored by Ishwardas Nagar, chronicles Emperor Aurangzeb's reign from 1658 to 1707 AD, depicting him as both a supporter of Islam and a suppressor of Hinduism without emphasizing significant conflicts like that with Shivaji in religious terms.

Alghazali

Author: Allam Shibli Nomani

Review: Understandably, the book is the last name of Imam Muhammad bin Muhammad Ghazali Rahmatullah Alih, which has been compiled by Allama Shibli Nomani. Who is not aware of the status of Imam Ghizali Rahmatullah Alih, he was a great scholar. For a long time, he was discussed in Europe, and many authors wrote Shura and Hawashi based on his dictation.

ارتھ ساسٹر

Author: کوٹلیہ چانکیہ

ارتھ ساسٹر، جو کوٹلیہ چانکیہ کی تصنیف ہے، 311 سے 300 ق.م کے درمیان لکھی گئی۔ یہ کتاب برصغیر کی سیاست اور تمدن پر زبردست اثر ڈالنے والی ہے اور اگلی صدیوں میں بھی اس کے اثرات محسوس کیے جائیں گے۔ کوٹلیہ نے ہندوستانی تمدن کے ہر پہلو جیسے زراعت، اقتصاد، قانون، اور فوجی مہارت پر بحث کی ہے۔ علم سیاست کے ماہرین اسے ہندوستان کا ارسطو اور ایک نئی سیاسی نظام کا بانی قرار دیتے ہیں۔ یہ کتاب اس کے نظریات کو سمجھنے کا معتبر ذریعہ ہے۔

Khatoot-e-Ghalib: Intikhab

Author: Tanzeem-ul-Firdous

Review: This selection of Mirza Asadullah Khan Ghalib's letters highlights his departure from the Persian writing norm of his contemporaries, opting for a unique Urdu style that eschewed ornate language and formalities. These letters are considered early landmarks in modern Urdu prose, alongside Sir Syed Ahmed Khan's essays.

Khutbat-e-Bahalwalpur

Author: Dr. M. Hamidullah

Review: The Emergence of Islam is an English version of twelve lectures by M. Hamidullah, illustrating the core Islamic teachings and the early intellectual and institutional development of Islam. The author effectively presents a comprehensive overview of Islam's inception as a religion, community, state, and intellectual tradition.

Sharah Zarb-e-Kaleem

Author: Allama Muhammad Iqbal

Review: Zarb E Kaleem, an Urdu poetry book by Allama Muhammad Iqbal, published in 1936, critiques modernity and highlights issues of Godlessness, materialism, and injustice impacting society, particularly affecting Indian Muslims. The book carries the subtitle 'A Declaration of War Against the Present Times.'

Bal-e-Jibril

Author: Allama Muhammad Iqbal

Review: Bal-e-Jibril, by Dr. Allama Muhammad Iqbal, is a significant poetry collection in Urdu and Persian. It reflects spiritual wisdom, self-discovery, and the awakening of the Muslim Ummah through ghazals and quatrains. Inspired by Sufi teachings, especially Rumi, Iqbal's verses advocate self-realization and revival of the Islamic spirit, encouraging freedom and personal growth.

LIBRARY

EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

Library Orientation for New Students

During the academic year, guided visits for newly admitted students were arranged at both libraries, the Khan Bahadur Hassanally Effendi Library and the Allama I. I. Kazi Library. The purpose of these visits was to familiarize students with library facilities, collections, digital resources, and essential services that support their academic learning and research activities. Students were introduced to library registration, borrowing procedures, reading areas, and online services, including access to the HEC Digital Library, e-books, databases, and the institutional digital repository.

Certificate Distribution Ceremony for Library Staff

A certificate distribution ceremony was organized by the Khan Bahadur Hassanally Effendi Library to recognize the dedication and professional contributions of library staff during the Stocktaking activity of 2024. The ceremony was graciously honored by the Hon' Vice Chancellor, Mr. Mujeebuddin Sahrai Memon, who appreciated the staff's commitment to providing quality library services and supporting the academia.

Annual Library Stock Taking Activity 2025

The Stocktaking activity 2025 was performed, aimed to verify the physical availability of books and other library materials, update accession records, and identify any missing or damaged items. The successful completion of the stock taking reflects the library's continued commitment to maintaining an organized, reliable, and accessible collection for the students & faculty.

Academic Delegations Visit SMIU Libraries

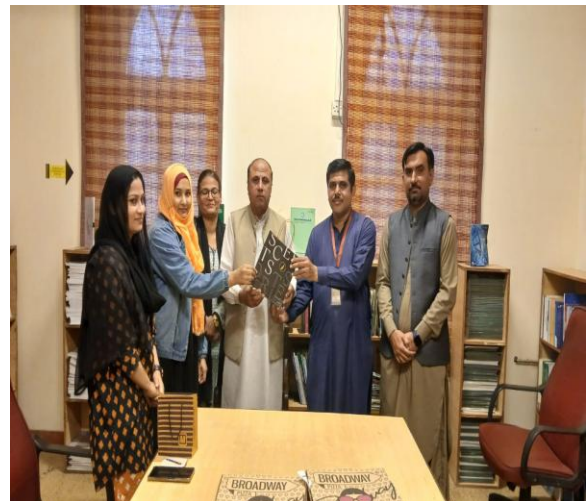

Library professionals and IT staff from Jinnah Sindh Medical University and Shaheed Zulfiqar Ali Bhutto University of Law (SZABUL) visited the libraries of Sindh Madressatul Islam University. The visiting team from Jinnah Sindh Medical University observed the implementation and functioning of the RFID system, gaining practical insight into automated circulation, security, and efficient collection management. Meanwhile, the delegation from SZABUL reviewed overall library operations, advanced services and facilities, and the provision of digital library services, seeking guidance for further development of their institutional libraries.

Farewell Ceremony

The Library organized a heartfelt farewell ceremony for Mr. Muhammad Azeem, our senior library clerk, on his retirement this year. The event, arranged by the library team, celebrated his years of dedicated service, professionalism, and valuable contributions to the smooth functioning of library operations. Colleagues and staff expressed their gratitude and best wishes, sharing memories and acknowledging his commitment.

Participation in Global Research Congress 2025

During the University's Global Research Congress, two library officers, Ms. Nadia Kiran, Deputy Librarian, and Mr. Tariq Aziz, Assistant Librarian, presented their research papers, contributing to the academic discourse and highlighting the professional role of library practitioners in research and knowledge development. In addition to their scholarly participation, both officers actively supported the successful organization of the conference by serving as members of different committees. In recognition of their dedicated services and valuable contributions, they were honored by the Vice Chancellor.

Digital Resource Centre for Faculty and Ph.D. Scholars

To strengthen research support and provide a focused academic environment, a dedicated DRC Lab for Faculty and PhD Scholars have been established by the Hon' Vice Chancellor, Mr. Mujeebuddin Sahrai Memon at the Khan Bahadur Hassanally Effendi Library. The DRC Lab offers access to new computers, high-speed internet connectivity, and digital library resources. The facility aims to enhance productivity by providing uninterrupted study space, improved access to e-resources, and a supportive environment for thesis work, publications, and research consultations.

Book Donation from the Governor of Sindh

This year, the Khan Bahadur Hassanally Effendi Library, along with the library of SMIU Model School, was honored to receive a generous donation of valuable books from the Governor of Sindh, Mr. Muhammad Kamran Khan Tessori. The donation was formally received by Dr. Stephen John, Dean Faculty of Education along with Mr. Tariq Aziz, Assistant Librarian at SMIU, from the office of the Governor's representative. This valuable contribution significantly enriched the library collections, supporting academic learning, research, and the overall educational development of students and faculty.
